VOL. LIII.-NO. 209

NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1911

PRICE TWO CENTS

The Bulletin's Circulation in Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population

REVENUE FROM FRANCHISE GRANT

Senators Contend For Income to the State From River Privilege

FROM CONNECTICUT POWER COMPANY

This Fight Brought Out First Real Filibuster on Thursday-Three Hour Debate-The House Favors County Lines in Redistricting-No Opposition to $3,402,-000 For State Highway Commissioner's Office.

n opposition.

Concurred on Naval Militia Bill.

the senate in passing the measure.

Law on Hungarian Partridges.

The bill making an appropriation of $164,500 for completion of the Connec-

All Bills in Effect Sept. 15.

simply the inquiry into hours of of Montenegro.

the Servian royal family.

COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

to London Report.

that government agents everywhere are active in their endeavors to kill off trading by the Jews. In one case, he says, a Jewish firm gave the lowest tender for a large contract. One of Premier Stolypin's agents immediately stepped in and offered to do the work at a considerable loss. He let the contract to a competitor and the loss was made up out of government funds

All the government contracts, says the correspondent, find their way sole-ly into the hands of the Black Hun-

Senator LaFollette Declares They Will Only Enlist for the Right.

"because you can't enlist a majority of 90,000,000 of people in anything un-less it is right. The American people are the most conservative on earth."

CONSERVATIVE ON EARTH

WED RUSSIAN PRINCE

Hartford, Conn., Aufi. 31.—The only the size of New Haven city, would his session of the general assembly seveloped this afternoon in the continued debate over the bill to allow the Connecticut Power company to issue in a natural way. Mr. Belcher of New five millions in bonds, based upon its London favored the Barnum plan because rights in the Connecticut river at Windsor Locks. The arguments made yesterday afternoon were very lively, but the situation throughout plan went through with hardly a voice in a natural way. Mr. Belcher of New London favored the Barnum plan because it provides an equal division of population.

After further debate the Stevens plan went through with hardly a voice in a natural way. rnoon from noon, when the as again taken up, until just o'clock was extremely intense.

Ready to Stay All Winter. The adjournment found Senator Peck ent to the charter of company which would bring to the state some re enue in exchange for that he termed the giving away of the ibuster was developed by the of the senate, who had in arently the obtaining of conssions from the company in the way ent of a franchise tax Thirteen Amendments Rejected.

$1.64.500 for completion of the Connecticut reformatory was passed in concurrence. The appropriation bill for the state highway commissioner's office, carrying $3,402.000, the biggest single bill in the budget, was passed without opposition. The chief items are: Commissioner's salary for tweets, $10,000; traveling expenses, $2.000; cherical and office expenses, $35.000; for repairs, $200.000; for deputy, inspectors and engineers $150.000; for To the bill allowing the company to issue $5,000,000 in bonds, though the capitalization is only $203,000, and which bill, favorably reported from the sincorporations committee, had seed the house without an amendent, fifteen amendments were offered.

these roll call votes were taken on urteen, one being disposed of without roll call. Of these amendments all A resolution making all acts to go into effect Sept. 15 was passed.

A bill placing the cost of maintaining trunk lines of highways upon the

The Dramatic Point. eramatic point of the debate was Senator Woodruff, who had been corridor, rose to say that the factions among the interests as passed in the house. Denounced "Lobby Message." senator Judson rose to denounce is lobby message as the rawest position he had ever known of in islative experience." The senate recessed in order that ered, so the bill could be passed in concurrence. Senators enough changed their position to secure reconsidera-tion. Several senators made plea for its repassage on the ground that the state's interests should be protected and that investors should have their $20,000 Necklace is Gift of the King interests safeguarded. With the tide against him. Senator Judson had the against him. Senator Judson had the against him. Senator Judson had the against him tabled so he could draw a general bill to meet the situation, after which he claimed should the hill pass the original bill could be passed and the acceptance of that bill would be contingent upon the acceptance of the new Judson bill, which would go in as an amendment.

Senator Hooker's Amendment Lost. Senator Hooker put in an amendment to give manufacturers the right to get power from the company by contract, and at five year periods the amount to be in all half the total developed by the company. This was lost, 25 to 4.

Then debate began on the passage of Mr. Judson's general amendment, and during it Senstor Mahan, who yesterday made t plea for obtaining of the state a franchise tax, took the opposite side to Mr. Judson and was against the resolution. The senators who want the company to say the state something for its franchise then began their fight, Senators Hooker, Fenn. Judson, Spellacy and Peck taking the Judson, Spellacy and Peck taking the floor to argue for the Judson resolu-tion. For three hours the excitement $15,000 Spent Last Session. once while on his feet Senator Hooker told Mr. Fenn that Mr. Freeman, one of the counsel in the case, had said to him in the corridor that last session 515,000 was spent on this bill, but nothing was said about the cost so far this session.

An adjournment was finally the

as a state park commission.

The house this afternoon refused to postpone the task of redistricting the state into five congressional districts on the motion made by Representative Evarts of Milford and with practically no opposition substituted the report of the minority of the committee prezented by Representative Stevens of Jerlin for the majority report made by Senator Barnum, and then passed the bill as amended. On the part of the house, therefore, the state is divided into districts as follows:

First district: Hartford county.
Second district: Tolland, Windham.
New London and Middlesex counties.
Third district: Towns of Cheshire.
Meriden, Wallingford, Bethany, Hamden, North Haven, North Branford, Guilford, Madison, Woodbridge, Oreng, Milford, New Haven, East Haven and Branford, in the county of New Haven.

New Haven. Fourth district: County of Fairfield. Fifth district: County of Litchfield Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 31.—With its crew of more than seven hundred mer Fifth district: County of Edichfield with towns of Southbury, Middlebury, Waterbury, Wolcott, Oxford, Naugatuck, Prospect, Beacon Fails, Seymour, Ansonia and Deroy, in New Haven county.

The house accepted this because county was strong for preserving county flues.

Warsaw, Aug. 31.—During artillery naneuvers today a shrapnel shell ex-loded in a crowd of peasants. Three ersons were killed and sixteen woundcording to an official statement issued today by the Italian government there were 1,635 cases of cholera and 593 deaths from the disease throughout Italy between August 20 and August 28 inclusive.

Viterbo, Italy, Aug. 31.-Enrico Ca-Viterbo, Italy, Aug. 31.—Enrico Caruso, the opera singer, was an interested spectator of the proceedings of the Camorrist trial. When the tenor was leaving the court room, one of the prisoners in the steel cage, Corrado Sortino, who at one time kept a fashionable parber shop and who had often shaved Caruso, made a low bow. The singer acknowledged the sainte by taking off his hat. by taking off his hat.

Paris, Aug. 31.—Theophile Homolle, director of the National museums, was suspended by the French cabinet today ory of the state, to explain the cause of a wreck. The matter discussed was he recent wreck below Middletown, in which Abram P. Brown of Hartford os: his life and fifty or sixty more were injured.

INVESTIGATING WRECK. Road Officials Give Testimony on Valley Division Catastrophe.

were injured.

Clayton L. Woodward, superintendent of the Shore Line division, testified that his examination of the wreck showed that the inside rail had been said the forward part of his engine litt after which he knew nothing until taken out of the cab of his engine. Superintendent Woodward said the angle bar had been taken off, that the bolts had been unscrewed, and wee found near the end of the rail. There were no marks on the rail, according to his testimony, except on the end which had been hit by the engine. An inner plate, he said, had been placed under the end of this rail, jacking it up so that the wheel of the engine would hit without running over it. John D. Reilly, a track repairer, said that the plate, he said, had been placed under the end of this rail, jacking it up so that the wheel of the engine would hit without running over it. John D. Relly, a track repairer, said that the place where the accident occurred could be seen from nearby houses in winter time, but in the summer trees and foliage out off the without running over it. John D. Relly, a track repairer, said that the place where the accident occurred could be seen from nearby houses in winter time, but in the summer trees and foliage out off the winter trees and foliage out off the winter

SENATOR LODGE'S SON Wedding in Boston-Attachment Be gan in Hospital.

Boston, Aug. 31.—John Ellerton more for Lodge, son of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, was married late today at the rectory of the cathedral of the Holy RAIN ding, the culmination if an attachment formed when Miss Connolly acted as nurse for the senator's son during his illness in a Boston hospital, was witnessed by Senator Lodge and Congressman A. P. Gardiner, his son-inlaw, and their families. Rev. Father Connolly of New Glasgow, N. S., a brother of the bride, and Congressman Gardner were the legal witnesses. The couple will make their home in St. Petersburg, August 31.—King Peter of Servia, his daughter, Princess Helena, and the heir to the Servian throne, Prince Alexander, will arrive at Peterhof tomorrow for the marriage on September 3 of Princess Helena to Prince John Constantinovitch son of The couple will make their home in witch. They will be the guests of the emperor and empress at the small Alexandra palace at Peterhof.

Crown Prince Danilo Alexander of Montenegro will attend the wedding. King Nicholas of Montenegro has presented to the bride a necklace costing HANDSOME JACK" GERAGHTY three days, where Geraghty will resume the automobile business. Mr. Geraghty i sconsidering the leasing of a house on Gibbs avenue in a fashionable part of Newport, and will make his home thehe with his wife.

Tomgat a precipitation of 12.10 been recorded for the month a midnight the rain is still falling. CITY MAY ACQUIRE HISTORIC RACE TO

New York, Aug. 31.—"Uncle Ben," the friend of East Side boys and girls, is dead. The aged man who had devoted his life to making more happy the youngsters of New York's poor with marvelous fairy tales died today in a hospital. Stelryation, say the doctors, killed "Uncle Ben." who had no money, home or friends, excepting the children of the poor.

News of Uncle Ben's passing spread

News of Uncle Ben's passing spread quickly. Silently weeping, a group of ragged youngsters turned away from the entrance to the hospital, where they had daily congregated, when a nurse told them that their friend had gone.

Williams Grove, Pa. Aug. 31.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, speaker of the day at the mass meeting held at this place under the auspices of the state grange, today, only casually mentioned the presidency and did not discuss reciprocity and other national issues.

The speaker said that the people need not fear the initiative, referendum or recall. "They need fear no ultra or radical legislation." said he, "because you can't enlist a majority

Kamrar, Iowa, Aug. 31.—Two elders of the Mormon church left this city afoot today, with the din of many dishpans echoing in their ears.

The elders were making proselying speeches last night when a crowd of women, beating vigorously on kitchen tinware, created such pandemoinium that the speakers could not be heard. Mormon sympathizers sought to repel Mormon sympathizers sought to repel the assault of noise by throwing water on the women, but at this point husbands and brothers took a hand and after lively fisticusts the meeting was broken to Advocated by Mr. Stevens.

The matter was called up by Mr. Stevens, who explained the two reports lating stress upon the feature that county lines are preserved and that the ends county which has to be cut up is New Haven, which, owing to the Atlantic fleet.

Steamship Arrivals.

At Rotterdam: August 30, Uranium, from New York.

From New York.

At Rotterdam: August 30, Uranium, from New York, from New York, was broken up.

Night of Peril In Small Yawl

LEVEN RESCUED BY LITTLE EGG HARBOR LIFE SAVERS.

SCHOONER FOUNDERED

Atlantic City, N. J., August 31.— Capt. H. S. Sampson, his wife, two children, and a crew of seven men of the schooner Jessie B. Burt were res-cued today by the crew of the Little Egg Harbor life saving station, after having spent a perilous night in a vani

The schooner was caught in the wild

With all salls gone, the vessel was ea and after weathering the storm fo a brief time the schooner foundered. In the meantime the captain and his crew had made ready the yawl boat and after Mrs. Sampson and the two children had been placed in the little craft, the captain and seven men also crowded in winter time, but in the summer trees and foliage out off the view. He said he walked over the tracks two houds before the time of the accident, and that the track was in proper condition at that time. F. J. Ellsworth, a division engineer, and George DeMarc, a roadmaster, corroborated the testimony of the two witnesses.

In Sight of Barnegat Light. The schooner foundered shortly after midnight about seven miles off Barnegat. The Barnegat light could be seen by the shipwrecked crew, but they could make but little headway in the wicked sea that was running. Carried on the top of the huge combers like a cockleshell, the occupants expected to be thrown into the wild surface moment. During the entire pictor.

Head Given Lie Was Perileus Task.

When the power boat reached the frail craft it was almost impossible to bring the two together, but finally after careful maneuvering, the yawl was brought alongside and the women and children first taken off. A line was then made fast to the yawl and all were brought to the shore in safety.

RAIN APPROACHING RECORD

Three States Getting a Flood from the roun washouts that it was obliged to route its trains via the tracks of the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington railroad company. The latter road was also budly hampered by washouts along its tracks.

August, 1867, is the only month in the 92 years covered in the annals possessed by the local weather bureau in which a rainfall greater than that of the present month is recorded. Tonight a precipitation of 12.10 has been recorded for the month and at midnight the rain is still felling.

New York for $2,250,000.

New York Aug. 31.—The final passing of one of New York's famous race tracks was made known today when the Brighton Beach Racing association offered to sell to the city its track, hotels, bathing bouses and beach front. The price asked for this track, upon which history has been made, and for the other holdings, is said to be $2,-250,000. The offer was made in connection with the city's proposal to buy Ocean Front park, The proposition was taken under consideration.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER. Whose Widow He Married.

A week ago, while he sat on a bench in Seward park telling a wonderful story of the wooing of a fairy princess, the aged man was suddenly stricken and taken to the hospital. No one knew whence he came or who he was.

MORMONS CHASED OUT.

lowa Women Drum the Elders Out of Town.

Kamrar, Iowa, Aug. 31.—Two elders of the Mormon church left this city afoot today, with the din of many dishpans echoing in their ears.

The elders were making proselying speeches last night when a crowd of

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 31.—Six aspirants for the democratic nomination for mayor of New Haven filed their primary nomination papers tonight as follows: Former Mayor James B. Martin, Benjamin F. Milner, David E.
Fitzgerald, Capt. Edgar S. Dowe, Peter J. Conlin and James N. States. The party primaries will be held Sept. 12.
when one of the six will be selected as the party candidate. he party condidate.

Geidel Jury Out All Night

REPORT THIS MORNING

New York, Aug. 31.—The life of Paul Geidel, the 17 year old bellboy, hangs in the balance tonight. The twelvemen who have been trying him on a charge of murdering William H. Jackson, the aged Wall street broker, a month ago, were still deliberating their verdict at a late hour, after having been closeted since three o'clock this afternoon. Asked for Instructions.

The difficulty of the problem which confronted the jury was made plain at nine o'clock tonight when, after six nours' deliberation, they asked the court for further instructions regarding the different degrees of murder. While Judge Crain was instructing them relative to murder in the second the Judge Crain was instructing in relative to murder in the second tree, two of the jurymen nodded in heads as if that had been the estion which had been puzzling

As the jurymen filed back to their room, Judge Crain said that if a ver-dict was not reached by 11.45 o'clock he would order the jurymen held until At midnight the jury had reached no verdict and was locked up for the night with instructions to report to the court at ten o'clock tomorrow

WILL TREAT ONLY WITH UNIONS INVOLVED Central Officials Adhere

Their Original Position.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—C. H. Markham resident of the Illinois Central rail-oad, today took a hand in the con-trences with union representatives, in to recognize the newly organized federation. He apparently was unwilling to recede from the road's previous strand of treating only with the representatives of the unions involved he issued the following statement:

"We had a conference with three of the representatives of the International Brotherhoods with which we have contracts, and they told us teat the officers of the Illinois Central railroad would not and could be discussed. Had Given Up Hope.

Captain Sampson said that all hope had been abandoned when the eleven persons crowded into the yawl and left the stranded schooner He said it was almost a miracle how the yawl survived the wild night.

The Jessie B, Burt was from Baltimore for Belfast, Me., loaded with fermare for the same ching record

IN PHILADELPHIA

Of the same. Their attention was called to the fact that the Illinois Central had always lived up to both the letter and spirit of these contracts and that it expected its employes, as parties to the same, to do likewise."

FRANCE TO GIVE CUR

Course in School at Saumur. Washington, August 31.—The war department desires that the American cavalry soldier shall be as perfect a horseman as the cavalryman was in the days of the Indian campaigns. With this object in view, Capts. Conrad S. Babcock and Henry R. Richmond and Lieut. Adna R. Chaffee, all of the cavalry, are to take a year's course of instruction in the French army riding school at Saumur.

The advance of civilization the bi-The advance of civilization, the bi-cycle and the automobile, are the causes of derioration in American causes of derioration in American horsemanship, in the opinion of army officers. In the early days, when the west was a wilderness, the United states possessed plenty of natural riders, who lived in the saddle. Under new conditions, this has changed, and today a perfect rider is a varity. today a perfect rider is a rarity.
Upon the return of the officers from France they will be appointed instruc-

AMERICAN CITIZENS FOR CONSULAR POSTS State Department Wants Them to place Foreigners. Washington, August 31.—The question of supplanting with American citizens the great number of foreigners who hold positions in the consular service of the United States will be takvice of the United States will be tak-en up with congress at the next ses-sion, when the state department will ask for an additional number of consul-assistants, to replace men owing al-legiance to other countries. These for-eigners are employed as clerks and sometimes occupy the relation of vice consul. The custom of bringing for-eigners into the service has grown up eigners into the service has grown up, it is said, because of the impossibility to secure Americans for this clerical force far away from home with a maximum salary limitation of $1,000.

Two Persons Fatally Injured.

Newark, Ohio, Aug. 31.—Two persons were fatally injured and the lives of dozens of others were put in peril today when a peanut roaster which was being operated at a prominent intersection, exploded and scattered fragments of the machine over 1 short distance of two city blocks. Edward Grady, a machinist, who was walking on the street a block away, had his head practically split open when he was struck by the flying cylinder head. Physicians say he will not survive the night. Gus Prittio, a Greek, who owned the machine, was also badly man-

A Tong War Has Broken Out

Forest Fires in California and Mon-

Samuel Harris, 15 Years Old, of hiladelphia, committed suicide by in-the southern section of Philadelphia causing considerable damage.

Marquis Saronji Submitted to the emperor of Japan the names of the men composing the new cabinet.

Ensign W. Smith of Massachusetts and Midshipman A. L. Pendleton, Jr., of North Carolina have resigned.

The First Methodist Episcopal Church in Akron, O., was burned to the ground. The building cost $250,-

Secretary of the Navy Winthrop re-ceived a wireless from Admiral Togo thanking him for the escort when he Army Surgeons Are Urging the war department to dismiss soldiers for physical disability rather than try to tion ceremonies, will reach New York. Alexander Suliman, a Miner, and Despatches from Copenhagen and

The Derelict Destroyer Seneca has been ordered from her home station at New York to cruise off Charleston New York Grocery Circles are show

Frank Finnerty, one of the men ar-rested at the state capitol, in Hartford, in connection with the soliciting of subscriptions for a labor publication, Mrs. Anna Pfeiffer, a cook in Keansburg, N. J. found a pearl of perfect shape, worth about $100, in an oyster stew that she had made. Boling the Hot Solder Spilled by Tinners set fire to the roof of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Akron, Ohio, and in an hour the building, which cost $250,000, was destroyed.

Wireless Calls by Jack Scheetz, a Philadelphia schoolboy, while he was lashed to the rigging of the steamer Lexington as she went ashore on the South Carolina coast, brought about he rescue of her passengers.

The Body of Simeon E Coffin of Marblehead. Mass., was washed ashore near the Newport naval training sta-tion Wednesday. He disappeared Au-gust 23 and is supposed to have rolled overboard while asleep on the deck of a vacht.

Two Hundred Boys, members of the volunteer fire department of Randall's Island where New York city has a reformatory school, successfully fought a fire that imperilled the lives of 125 women employed in the big laundry building.

man who has been in her employ as a Organizations Throughout the Country notified the headquarters at Kansas City of the national conservation congress of the naming of delegates to the third annual meeting next month. Among others is the Daughters of the American Revolution.

All Hurt Were Trainmen.

Kingston, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Lewis J. Simmons, a trainman, was killed and convenient on the close of the quadrent of the surface of th

Condensed Telegrams BEATTIE'S STOICAL CALM IS BRO

Prisoner Shaken With Sobs When His Fath Describes Their Happy Home Life

ACCUSED ON THE STAND TODAY

Defense Will Then Rest-Paul Beattie's Veracity Attacked

-Known As Biggest Liar In Town One Witness Says -The Slain Woman Had a Daughter's Place in the Home-Grief At Her Death.

Chesterfield Courthouse, Va., Aug. 31. the accused, was interrogated for the murder of his wife, sobbed like a child when his gray haired father, in a prisoner's face flushed. The well-ber the manufacture of the stepped to the witness stand prisoner's face flushed. The well-ber the manufacture of the stepped to the witness stand prisoner's face flushed. thild when his gray haired father, in a low, tremulous voice, told of the domestic felicity of his son and the slain and pale, spoke in a voice woman, Louise Owen Beattie. It was above a whisper. Talking wit the first time that the stoical calm of saddened by the death of some saddened by the saddened b woman, Louise Owen Beattie. It was the first time that the stoical calm of the prisoner's countenance had given way during the trial. The testimony of the father in behalf of his son came as the dramatic close of a long day's battle by the defense against the evidence heaped by the prosecution. Tomorrow the accused himself will go on the stand and the defense will rest its case.

Told of His Grandson's Shortcomings. Told of His Grandson's Shortcomings.

Battering constantly against the testimony of Paul Beattie, cousin of the prisoner, as to the purchase of the gun, his delivery of it to Henry and his subsequent conversations with the accused, the defense introduced several witnesses to cast doubt upon the veracity of Paul. It emphasized that point when it produced David D. Beattle, Paul's grandfather, and the uncle of Henry, who testified that Paul's character was not good. It was another tense period in thet rial, for with apparent refret the aged man told of his grandson's shortcomings.

Rejuting Paul's Testimony.

Refuting Paul's Testimony. The most surprising refutation of the day against Paul's testimony came when Ernest H. Neblitt said that on Sunday, July 16, he saw Paul Beattie on the bridge, where he stood handling a single harraled shotgun. Paul had maintained ever since the coroner's in-quest that he disposed of the shotgun the same day he bought it, Saturday, July 15, by giving it to Henry. E. H. Lewis, an employe of the Beattie store in South Richm that people spoke of Paul Beattle "as the biggest liar in.town."

Testified With Great Effort. Henry Clay Beattie, Sr., father of row.

WILD DISORDER IN MEXICAN CONVENTION. Telegram Claimed to Be a Forgery Started the Disorder.

Mexico City, Aug. 31.—At the end of a most impressive day in the first convention of the new progressive party of Mexico, in which Francisco I. Maulleged dero in his speech accepting the nomination for the presidency gave his views of the platform and how the country should be governed, the session came to a close in wild disorder.

Threats to clear the galleries tonight started a tumult greater than that which characterized last night's session. This threat was supplemented by another to adjourn and close the doors tomorrow to the public. The row subsided only when the turbulent element had worn itself out.

Following discussion of the four candidates for the vice presidency the convention adjourned, leaving the vote for tomorrow.

In this offices here of Jessie McDonald a high school girl, was held to answer before the superior court today.

Heavily guarded by armed deputy sheriffs, Dr. McDavitt was brought into court from the jail at Riverside, 12 miles from here, where he had been secretly kept for two weeks to prevent an expected demonstration against him.

Miss McDonald testified that for 10 months, while immured in a little room next to the dentist's office, she did not get a glimpse of daylight. The blinds of her windows always were drawn. For days at a time, she said, she was without food.

Episcopal church in Akron, Ohio, and in an hour the building, which cost $250,000, was destroyed.

An American in Paris is Being Watched in connection with the disappearance of Mona Lisa, announced William Loeb, Jr., collector of customs at the port of New York.

Norfolk Naval Circles Hear that the captain of the battleship Delaware will be asked to explain why shells intended for the target ship San Marcos struck near the repair ship Panther, with 500 men aboard.

Miss Eunice Murphy of Independence.

was taken up by a group of students in the gallery.

Chairman Azeona had little difficulty in calling the delegates to order, but the irrepressible youngsters were deaft to his appeals. When he threatened to clear the galleries or to close the house to the public the jeering of the students was very vicious and for a time it appeared not improbable that the services of the police would be required. When he could make himself about the about heard, the chairman declared that in his opinion the action of the group in the gallery had been instigated either by Clentificos or Reyestas in an effort to disrupt the convention.

THOMPSONVILLE SCHOLARS

OUT IN THE COLD.

High School Building Unsafe-Walls

Have Bulged Badly. Thompsonville, Conn., Aug. 31.—The local high school building was condemned as unsafe today, and other quarters will have to be provided for the 300 or more pupils who would have commenced the fall term on September 7. A crack in the walls of the building, which is a two story brick structure built in 1875, was found by an electrician and today experts from Springfield and Hartford carefully inspected the building, finding that the walls had bulged to such an extent that it was a marvel that the roof had not fallen long ago. Two or three months will be required to repair the damage.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 31.—Suddenly becoming crazed, apparently by the heat, James Mahoney, a former New York policeman, said to be a relative of W. Bonrke Cockran, either perished or is wandering maked on the Nevada desert, 50 miles east of Beno.

Mahoney left Reno three days ago to accept a position with a surrowing been neglected because twi to the family during his b described how on account the death of his own w grown closely attached to his described the strong love that between Henry and the ill-fat

The Baby Drew Them Toget "When her baby was born," Beattie, speaking of the dead "it was like starting life over together very much."

The father spoke highly of hicharaster and controverted the mony of many witnesses for the cution, that Henry showed no si grief after his wife's murder. I clared that he sobbed and moan ready for cross-examination prosecution, Mr. Wendenburg the opportunity. It was the fit during the trial that his had o After a few minutes' testimon Mary Jackson, a colored woman, teffect that she saw a bearded muthe vicinity of the murder on the day before it happened, which cross examination seh was unab maintain court adjourned until to DEPUTIES SAVED PRISONER FROM ENRAGED FATHER Dentist Had Held High School Girl Prisoner Ten Months.

McDavitt, a dentist, chargestatutory offense following

For days at a time, she said, she was without food.

When court adjourned today the father of the girl rushed at the prisoner. In an instant the courtroom was in an uproar, but the deputies hurried Mc-Davitt out of the room and away before the demonstration took serious

MADERO GIVES HIS

PLEDGE TO RETIRE Which He Was Nominated.

MIDDLETOWN INQUEST.

Coroner Begins Investigation of Valley, Division Wreck Today.

Middletown, Conn., Aug. 31.—Stephen B. Davis, coroner of Middlesex county, announced this afternoon that the inquest which will begin tomorrow morning into the wreck on the Valley branch will be held befor ea coroner's jury of six men. The place of holding the hearing has been changed from the state attention, with the state attention. the hearing has been changed from the state attorney's office to the superior court in the municipal building.

Thomas Carcoran, who gave himself up to the police in New Haven yesterday, was closeted with raliroad detectives for an hour or more today in regard to the wreck of the train. A suspicion had been directed towards him, but the detectives say they are satisfied that he had absolutely nothing to do with it.

SHOWS MARTIAN CANALS. Best Photographs Ever Taken.

Flagstaff, Ariz., Aug. 31.—A photo-graph showing clearly the canals of Mars was exhibited today by profes-sors at the Lowell observatory here. The negative was secured last night and is said to be one of the clearest

Cabled Paragraphs

Chiasso, Switzerland, Aug. 31 .- Ac-

in consequence of the disappearance of Leonardo DaVinci's painting, "Mona Lisa," from the Louve. It was the opinion of the members of the ministry that M Homolle took insufficient ecautions to guard the treasures o

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS

Accepting the conference committe Hartford, Conn., Aug. 31.—Officials of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad were called before the railroad commissioners today, probably for the first time in the histhe appropriation bill for the support of the naval militia and concurred with To correct an error in the game las which made the open season on Hun-garian partridges from Oct. 1, a bit was passed to heal this and to make the season on this bird to conform with tampered with. It was the end of this rail that the engineeers of the train said the forward part of his engine Eit.

Mr. Chandler called up labor bills, one relating to prison made goods being passed in concurrence. On the bill to investigate hours of labor at state institutions he had the matter referred to the new industrial commission which is to be appointed by Governor Baldwin. The house then passed the bill to place painters, carpenters, masons, electricians, machinists, engineers, firemen and plumbers in the mechanical departments of state institutions on the eight hour basis. This will leave for the industrial commission simply the inquiry into hours of

ross to Miss Mary Catherine Connol y by Rev. Father Finnigan. The wed

With His Bridge Will Make There. The Russian newspapers publish fa-vorable comments on the members of

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 31,—John Edward P. Geraghty and his bride, who was Julia French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tuck French of Tuxedo and Newport, whose elopement a short time ago stirred society circles, will return to Newport within two or three days, where Geraghty will re-London, Sept. 1.—A Russian correspondent of the Jewish World describes an alleged campaign by the government to drive the Jews out of commerce and industry. He asserts that government agents everywhere are active in their endayors to kill of eight hours and was stripped of every Crowded Into the Yawl.

East Side Hear of Friend's Death.

Stripped of Every Sail.

The schooner foundered shortly aft

Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—One of the hetviest rain storms ever experienced in this section swept over eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey today. Creeks overflowed their banks, cellars were flooded mills and factories were obliged to close down, and train and trolley service was seriously interfered with. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company between this city and Baltimore suffered so severely from washouts that it was obliged to from washouts that it was obliged to

HISTORIC RACE TRACK Old Brighton Beach Course Offered to

Dayton, O., Aug. 31.—Fire complete-ly destroyed the tobacco warehouse and all its contents belonging to Jul-tus Marquesee in East Dayton today, with a loss of $290,020. An explosion preceded the fire.

The Olympic Sailed from Southamp-ton for New York with a record num-ber of first class passengers.

The British Steamer Knight of St. George was wrecked on one of the Fiji Islands. No lives were lost, Frank J. Dorlan, cashier of the Hotel Manhattan, was arrested Wednes-day on a charge of embezzlement.

A Coal Shipment of 8,000,000 Bushels—the largest in the history of Pitts-burg—is under way for Mississippi

A Coach of a Hocking Valley Train jumped a switch near Columbus, O. No one was killed, although many were slightly injured. The Cruiser Hai Chi, which repre-

Anthony Longvigh, a laborer, both of Freeland, Pa., are entombed in the Oakdale mine at that place.

ing concern over the high prices now prevailing in the sugar market, Gran-ulate is at the highest level in many gem spoiled its value.

Miss Eunice Murphy of Independence, Miss., arrived at Valentine, Neb., to stand trial on the charge of having incited the murder of her lover. Charles T. Sellers, who was hanged by four men who are in jail. tors in the American mounted service

The Buffalo Gnat has been fixed up-on by Henry Garman, a government bacteriologist and entomologist, as the cause of the mysetrious disease, pella-gra, which has been spreading in the mountain regions of Kentucky.

Mrs. Henry Fields, wife of a New York stock broker, No. 410 Riverside drive, is under the care of a physician as the result of an alleged attempt at assault made upon her by a negro wo-